1987
CABARRUS SCHOOL OF NURSING

CONCORD, NC

DEDICATION

With a warm "Hello" and a cheerful smile you have helped us through it all. For the times when we were so tired or laden with books that we couldn't open the door; you held it for us. For the times when we made the messes; you cleaned them up. For the encouragement you have given us and the kindness you have shown; we, the senior class of 1987, proudly dedicate this edition of the Cap 'n Pin to Charlie Moss. —It's the little things that mean a lot.

IN APPRECIATION:

There are red-letter days when we meet people who have a major effect on our lives. A person who listens when we talk, but more than that, she always hears us. She is a friend, and so she doesn't damage our hurt pride by pointing out our frailties. Carl Jung once said, "The meeting of two personalities is like the contact of two chemical substances; if there is any reaction, both are transformed." — Because we sincerely appreciate the affect you have had on our lives; we, the senior class of 1987, Thank You— Mrs. Frances Withers

CMH SCHOOL SONG

The Blue and the White

Blue and White— Let come what might
We shall remember thee.
We all shall sigh as we bid goodbye
To thy halls full of memory.
Going forth to meet life's challenge,
And the battles yet unfought,
We shall live by the good spirit
And the honor we were taught.

Dress of white and cape of blue,
We owe so much to you.
We would do the thing that would bring you fame
And be always good and true
Send us forth with thy great blessing
To be servers of mankind.
Dear Cabarrus, we would ever
Make thy guiding light to shine.

Response:

Dear Cabarrus, we would ever
Make thy guiding light to shine.

SENIOR CO-EDITOR
Angie Allen

It is unbelievable that this is it, we will be graduating! I would like to commend all my classmates, we've shared so many experiences these past two years. I must say, too, that I have never met people possessing the amount of true dedication, patience and understanding that our faculty possesses. There are so many times when the pressure made all of us want to throw up our hands and quit, but they gave us an extra vote of confidence and through it all we found the strength to push on until our goal was met. We can all have the joy of knowing that the memories we created will live on forever. To the class of 1987— much happiness and success.—
